

COM2145 – Animation II

Assignment #1

In COM1145: Animation I, you learned about the different types of animation and a number of animation techniques. For this assignment you are to find examples of animation and identify the types of animation used. You must identify one cartoon, one advertisement, and one animated film. In a Word document, answer the following questions for each of your three animations.

- 1) What is the animation called? (1 mark)
- 2) Who is the creator of the animation? (1 mark)
- 3) What frame rate do they use? (1 mark)
- 4) What is the length of the animation? (1 mark)
- 5) What story are the creators trying to tell? (3 marks)
- 6) How effectively do the creators integrate sound or music into the animation? (2 marks)
- 7) Identify and describe three principles of animation in the example (personification, exaggeration, secondary action, anticipation, stretch/squash, etc) (6 marks)
